Corporate Governance Statement

JUSTKAPITAL LIMITED (ACN 088 749 008)

This Corporate Governance Statement sets out JustKapital Limited's (Company) compliance with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (ASX Principles and Recommendations). The ASX Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory. However, the Company is required to provide this statement to ASX disclosing the extent to which the Company has followed the ASX Principles and Recommendations.

This corporate governance statement is current as at 31 December 2018 and has been approved by the board of the Company (Board).

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
1. Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1 A listed entity should disclose:	Yes	The Company's Board is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company.
(a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and
(b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes	Pursuant to the Company's Board Charter, the Board has delegated specific authorities to the Chairman, its CEO and to its various Committees. A copy of the Board Charter is available on the Company's website at the following URL:  http://www.lawfinance.com.au/investor-centre/governance/. Subject to these delegated matters, the Chairman is authorised to exercise all the powers of the Directors, except with respect to the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) approval of major elements of strategy including any significant change in the direction of that strategy;</li> <li>(b) approvals above delegated levels of credit limits, risk exposure, market risk limits and loans and encumbrances;</li> <li>(c) capital expenditure in excess of delegated levels of expenditure outside the ordinary course of business;</li> <li>(d) certain remuneration matters including material changes to remuneration policies and specific remuneration recommendations relating to the Board members and other executive officers of the Company;</li> <li>(e) adoption of the Company's annual budget;</li> <li>(f) approval of the interim and final accounts and related reports to the ASX;</li> </ul>

		(g) specific matters in relation to conflicts management of cases in which the Company is involved; (h) specific matters in relation to continuous disclosure as defined in the Continuous Disclosure Police; any proposal to issue securities of the Company (except under a program previously approved by the Board); and (i) other matters as the Board may determine from time to time. The Company is committed to the circulation of relevant materials to Directors in a timely manner to facilitate Directors' participation in Board discussions on a fully informed basis. It is expected that the division of responsibility of the Board and senior executives will vary with the evolution of the Company. The Company intends to regularly review the balance of responsibilities to ensure that the division of functions remains appropriate to the needs of the Company.
1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes Yes	The Remuneration and Nomination Committee's role includes identifying and recommending candidates for the Board to the Board. These recommendations will occur after considering the necessary and desirable competencies of new Board members, the range of and depth of skills and the diversity of the Board, and making appropriate checks regarding an individual being put forward. In the absence of the Committee undertaking this role, it may be undertaken by the Board. The Committee also aims to ensure that all material information in its possession relevant to a decision of whether to appoint or re-elect a director is made available to security holders. When an individual is nominated to be a Director, their curriculum vitae with their relevant professional history and qualifications is circulated to the security holders of the Company.
1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	Directors are given letters of appointment and/or service agreements, and senior executives are given employment contracts prior to their engagement with the Company.

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Company Secretary is appointed by and responsible to the Board of Directors through the Chairman. The Chairman and the Company Secretary will co-ordinate the Board agenda.
1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them and either: (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.	No	Given its current size and stage of development, the Company has not found it necessary to create a formal diversity policy or to annually report on measurable objects with respect to achieving gender diversity or diversity generally. However, the Company has and continues to remain committed to ideals of diversity throughout its business practices. As the Company continues to grow, the Board intends to review its practices, and if deemed necessary in the future, the Board may consider adopting a formal diversity policy.
1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Yes Yes	The performance of the Board as a group and of individual Directors is to be assessed each year through a process as determined by the Board at its discretion. In particular, all Directors seeking re-election at an annual general meeting will be subject to a formal performance appraisal to determine whether the Board (with the Director absenting themselves) recommend their re-election to shareholders. The Company did not undertake a formal performance appraisal of each Director

1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Yes Yes	The Board and senior management team will regularly review the performance of its senior executives and address any issues that may emerge through a process as determined by the Board or senior management team, at their discretion. The Company did not undertake performance appraisals of each senior executive during the period ended 31 December 2018 as the period was only a six month period. All senior executives will be subject to a formal performance evaluation prior to the next year end at 31 December 2019.

2 Structure the board to add value
2.1 The board should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meeting; or (b) if a listed entity does not have a nomination committee, it should disclose the fact and processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	No No Yes No No N/A	The Company has a remuneration and nomination committee (Remuneration and Nomination Committee), which currently does not have at least three members, or a majority of whom are independent directors. Considering the size of the Company and that the full board comprises four directors, the Company considers that it is not appropriate to strictly follow the Principles and Recommendations. As the Company grows, the Board will continue to evaluate whether it will be appropriate for additional and/or independent directors to be appointed to this committee and whether the minimum number of members should be varied. A copy of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at the following URL: http://www.lawfinance.com.au/investor-centre/governance/.
2.2 A listed entity should disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve its membership.	No	The Board strives to ensure that it is comprised of directors with a blend of skills, experience and attributes appropriate for the Company and its business. However, the Board is of the belief that a Board Skills Matrix is not required given the stage of development of the business. The Board will continue to monitor whether it will be appropriate for the company to adopt a Board Skills Matrix as the Company continues to develop.

2.3 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	No	Given its current size and stage of development, the Company has not found it necessary to disclose the names of directors considered by the Board to be independent Directors. However, the Company has disclosed details of each director, including their length of service, in the 2018 Annual Report. The Company will continually evaluate whether it will be appropriate to consider independent Directors as the business evolves and expands.
2.4 A majority of the board should be independent directors.	No	The Board considers that the current composition of the Board is appropriate in light of the Company's current operations and structure. The Board will continue to monitor whether additional independent directors should be appointed to the Board as the scale of its activities evolves and expands.
2.5 The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	No	The Board's current Chairman, Mr Tim Storey is a non-executive Director. Although Mr Storey does not satisfy the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations definition of an independent director because he was an executive of the Company within the last three years, Mr Storey brings an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board. Ms Diane Jones is the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. The Company continues to refine its focus on the strategic development of the business and a number of changes have been made at the senior management level.
2.6 A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	Each new Director of the Company will, upon appointment, participate in an induction program. This will include meeting with members of the existing Board, Company Secretary, management and other relevant executives to familiarise themselves with the Company, its procedures and prudential requirements, and Board practices and procedures.

3 Act ethically and responsibly
3.1 A listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and</li> <li>(b) disclose that code or a summary of it.</li> </ul>	Yes	The Board is committed to the establishment and maintenance of appropriate ethical standards in order to instil confidence in both clients and the community in the way the Company conducts its business. These standards are encapsulated in the Code of Conduct which outlines how the Company expects each person who represents it to behave and conduct business. In addition, the Board has adopted Privacy and Conflicts policies appropriate to its business. A copy of the Code of Conduct is available on the Company's website at the following URL: http://www.lawfinance.com.au/investor-centre/governance/
4 Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting
4.1 The board of a listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) have an audit committee which:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and</li> <li>(2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board,</li> </ul> </li> <li>and disclose:               <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(3) the charter of the committee;</li> <li>(4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and</li> <li>(5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or</li> </ul> </li> <li>(b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>No</li> <li>No</li> <li>Yes</li> <li>No</li> <li>No</li> <li>N/A</li> </ul>	The Company has a separately constituted audit and risk committee (Audit and Risk Committee) which currently does not have at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors. Considering the size of the Company and that the full board comprises four directors, the Company considers that it is not appropriate to strictly follow the Principles and Recommendations. As the Company grows, the Board will continue to evaluate whether it will be appropriate for additional and/or independent directors to be appointed to this committee and whether the minimum number of members should be varied. This committee charter outlines the keys areas of responsibility for the audit committee, outlining its responsibility for oversight of the quality and integrity of the accounting, auditing, financial reporting and operational risks of the company. A copy of the Audit and Risk Committee Charter is available on the Company's website at the following URL: http://www.lawfinance.com.au/investor-centre/governance/.

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
4.2 The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Yes	The Company has received a declaration from the CEO and CFO that, in their opinion, the financial records have been properly maintained and comply with the proper standards.

Name of Director or Secretary authorising lodgement: Diane Jones

<sup>1</sup> Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

<sup>2</sup> "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

<sup>3</sup> Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.
